Dear <<Physician Name>>:

For your patients with type 2 diabetes (T2D), adherence to lifestyle modifications and medication are key steps on the path to successful self-management of their disease. But as you know, many patients struggle with this, often failing after only 6 months.<sup>1</sup>

CarePath Healthy Engagements, a patient-support website from Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Inc., offers tools and resources to help support your efforts in the areas of patient education and patient engagement. Here, you will find tools to:

- Foster patient and family engagement in their health care through self-management
- Promote patient adherence by empowering them to keep on track
- Help improve communication between care team members
- Assess your progress on quality measures and outcomes

The wide range of informative and useful resources and downloadable tools on CarePathHealthyEngagements.com for you, your staff, and your patients are all designed to provide you with advanced tools for your patients with T2D.

We invite you to visit CarePathHealthyEngagements.com today and explore the many offerings there to help keep your T2D patients on track.

Sincerely yours,

<<Name>>
